

As a musician, a recording engineer, and an avid music fan I wholeheartedly believe that corporations should be limited in the number of outlets they can own. We have laws against monopolies for a reason!